The Art Institute of Chicago was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theatres, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collection of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds, in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from September 1 to May 31, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; to 5:30 from June 1 to August 31; Sundays from 12 to 8 p.m. from September 1 to May 31, to 9 p.m. from June 1 to August 31. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays also from 6 to 9 p.m.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, together with the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre, is under the same roof. The latter has a separate entrance at Monroe Street and South Park Drive.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to the use of the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries as well as to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by The Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts).

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with museum instructors.

FIFTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

To the President and the Governing Members of the Art Institute of Chicago:

It has been the privilege and the responsibility of The Art Institute of Chicago to assemble and to arrange in 1933 and again in 1934 two notable exhibitions for A Century of Progress Exposition. The first exhibition accented accomplishment in the field of Fine Arts during the last one hundred years, while the second was devoted to a retrospective exhibition of American art, its general background and contemporary trends. The courage of your Trustees in assuming this great undertaking at a time of severe financial depression has been justified. Attendance during these two years reached an unprecedented total of 2,995,498. The receipts enabled us to pay off the greater part of our indebtedness. The character and quality of the exhibitions gave new emphasis to the place of the Art Institute among American museums and reaffirmed the cultural side of our much maligned city.

The chronological arrangement of the galleries during the two World's Fair Exhibitions and in the interim period as well, having proved advantageous, was adopted in principle by the Trustees for the present and future hanging of the permanent collections of paintings.

The Membership Department reports a gain during the year of 451 members. The total number of members in all classes now amounts to 13,819. During the year $25,260.50 was added to the Life Membership Endowment Fund which now amounts to $1,319,654.00.

Important accessions to the Department of Painting and Sculpture include an early Rembrandt, "Christ Washing the Feet of the Disciples," Robert Alexander Waller Memorial; a Spanish Still Life, "Nuts in a Basket" (Zurbarán School) purchased from the A. A. McKay fund for the A. A. Munger Collection; Pieter Dubordieu, "Portrait of a Young Woman" from the Wilson L. Mead Trust fund; Paul Gauguin, "Hospital Garden at Arles," for the Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Coburn Collection; "View on the Schuylkill River" by John Neagle, presented by the Friends of American Art; "François I and Diane de Poitiers" by Richard Parkes Bonington purchased from the Simeon B. Williams fund and "The Resurrection" (School of Caravaggio), the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester.

Our collections of water colors were enriched by Paul Kleinschmidt's "Head of a Girl," the gift of Erich Cohn; three important works by Thomas Rowlandson: "Interior of An Inn," "The Old Eating House," and "Halt at An Inn," the gift of Mrs. Charles Netcher in memory of Charles Netcher II; two purchases from the Avery fund—"Barbadoes" by John W. Norton and "Landscape in Maine" by John Marin; "Chickens" by J. Edgar Miller and "Chinatown Night" by C. Earl Horter were Watson F. Blair purchase prizes.

Additions of contemporary sculpture include a bronze torso by Mario Korbel, a memorial gift to Louis Michael Stumer by his wife and children, and two small bronzes by Maillol, the gift of Mrs. Arthur T. Aldis and Graham Aldis.

The Department of Prints and Drawings was actively engaged during the year with the collection and installation of a second Century of Progress Print Exhibition. This exhibition combined the two Exhibitions of Contemporary Prints held annually by the department, viz: The Second International Exhibition of Etching and Engraving and The Fourth International Exhibition of Lithography and Wood Engraving.

In order to familiarize the public with individual prints in the collections of the Art Institute, the Department hung each month near the door of the Print Study Room a print carefully chosen to emphasize certain characteristics. This "Print of the Month" with a label commenting at some length upon the artist, medium and quality of impression has greatly interested our visitors.

Important accessions to the contemporary collections of the Department consist in prize-winning prints from the Century of Progress Exhibition, the prizes having been offered by Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan, Walter S. Brewster, Thomas E. Donnelley and Alfred E. Hamill; five contemporary prints purchased from the Albert H. Wolf fund, 27 contemporary prints (anonymous gift), and 16 woodcuts by Gustave Baumann, the gift of the artist in memory of the late Mrs. Coonley Ward. Mrs. Charles Netcher has added to the Charles Netcher II Memorial Collection important drawings by Jean Pillement and Charles Eisen and prints in color by Bartolozzi and Gardiner: "The Months" (set of 12), four by Janinet and other works by Louis Bonnet, by Julien and Moret, Phélippeaux and Moret, Macret and Couché, Massard and Le Bas. Rembrandt's "Clement de Jonghe, Printseller" was added to the Clarence Buckingham Collection. Purchases from the William McC. McKee Memorial fund include: "The Resurrection" by the Master of the Berlin Passion, "Old Man and Woman at Window" and "Arms of Rohrbach-Holzhausen by Master B x G," a page from a Fifteenth Century Block book, "Caspar" by Gerald Brockhurst and eleven prints illustrating Virgil's Eclogues by William Blake. Notable additions to the John H. Wrenn Memorial include one set of "The Grand Passion," consisting of twelve woodcuts, by Albrecht Dürer and Lucas van Leyden's "Solomon Adoring Idol of Moloch." "St. John the Baptist" by Giulio Campagnola and "Hugo Tigerschiöld" by Anders Zorn were purchased from the Charles Deering fund. The Print and Drawing Club presented "The Crucifixion," a Fifteenth Century woodcut and a drawing by Aldegrevier: "Maria, Duchess of Brunswick." Walter S. Brewster added to his collection of Whistleriana a drawing by Georges Du Maurier, "Whistler in a Hansom Cab," and gave, in addition, the beautiful "Triumph of Europa" from the Hypnerotomachia Poliphili. A notable gift to the department consisted in the Bryan Lathrop collection of 166 Etchings and Lithographs by Whistler, Haden, Cameron and other etchers, hitherto a loan to The Art Institute, presented by Mrs. Bryan Lathrop and the Trustees of the Lathrop Estate.

The Department of Decorative Arts placed on view in three galleries of Alexander McKinlock, Jr., Memorial Court an important collection of architectural fragments, English and American, as a memorial to the late Howard Van Doren Shaw, for many years Chairman of the Decorative Arts Committee.

Important accessions to the Department include the addition of 21 pieces of lace to the Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Ayer Collection through the bequest of Mrs. Ayer; a collection of Footwear and Buckles presented through the Antiquarian Society by Mrs. J. Ogden Armour; a Mid-Sixteenth Century Tapestry (Tournai?) presented by the Antiquarian Society; nine pieces of Swedish furniture given by Miss Florence Dibbell Bartlett; a 17th Century Altar Cover (Gros point de Venise), an anonymous gift through the Antiquarian Society. Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne gave four Eighteenth Century French chairs, two English Eighteenth Century Table models and various textiles; a Needlework panel of the Queen Anne Period was presented by David Adler; Mrs. Charles Netcher added to the Charles Netcher II Memorial Collection eight pieces of English Eighteenth Century ceramics and five pieces of English and French Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century furniture; seven French Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century French fans were given anonymously. Miss Anne Morgan gave two American Nineteenth Century Coverlets and two American chairs of the same period.

One major change has been made in the Oriental department—the Lucy Maud Buckingham Memorial Collection of Chinese Bronzes has been given new and larger quarters. For some time the collection had been housed in a gallery that did not permit visitors to see these priceless objects to the best advantage, but now with more space and better light the true worth of this famous collection becomes apparent.

The Oriental department has up to this time possessed but one example of Japanese sculpture. By a fortunate chance it has, within the last month, been able to acquire several others of distinct merit. There are four wood sculptures of deities, two dating from the tenth century, and four panels (ramma) carved on both sides in handsome decorated patterns, some geometric and others naturalistic. These ramma belong to the same set which is incorporated into the balustrade surrounding the Japanese court in the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

Additions to the Clarence Buckingham Collection of Japanese Prints consisted in 51 prints by Sharaku, four by Kiyonaga and thirty-seven by miscellaneous artists. Thirteen pieces of Japanese porcelain and pottery were added through purchase by The Orientals and the Nickerson fund. Three Persian miniatures and five pieces of pottery were added to the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection. Three dried lacquer figures (Chinese, Sung period) were presented by R. Bensabott.

The outstanding event of the year in the School was the negotiation of an arrangement with the University of Chicago by which students may take one course at the downtown college of the University of Chicago each term during the four-year course in the School of the Art Institute, at the successful completion of which they will be given a degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts by the Art Institute. All courses taken at the University of Chicago will receive credit for any future academic degrees that the students may wish to take.

During the year it was voted by the Board of Trustees that the School of the Goodman Theatre should be henceforth administered as a regular department of drama of the Institute school.

Professor Joseph Binder of Vienna spent a month with the school as visiting instructor working with advanced students of advertising and typographic design. Their work has been in continual demand for exhibition in various parts of the country since the end of the course.

A class in fresco painting has been introduced for the winter quarter and it is intended to make it a regular part of the curriculum hereafter. The class is being taught by Mr. Merlin Pollock, a graduate of the Institute school, who held an Anna Louise Raymond Traveling Fellowship and studied fresco painting in Europe.

After experimental work in the evening school, a course in dress design has been added to the curriculum of the department of industrial art in the day school. It is in charge of an experienced costume designer, Miss Beryl Spinney.

The Goodman Theatre offered 42 performances, 8 of which were free to members, to a total attendance of 35,572. Students in the School of the Drama number 121.

During the year the Art Institute lost through death one hundred and eighty-eight Life Members as well as the following Governing Members: A. B. Dick, Franklin MacVeagh, Joy Morton, Augustus S. Peabody, Mrs. Franklin Rudolph and Melvin A. Traylor.

Through the bequest of Mrs. L. L. Coburn $132,000.00 was added to the Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Larned Coburn Memorial Fund which now amounts to $167,000.00. Ten thousand dollars was added to the Florence Dibell Bartlett Fund for maintenance and installation of a Swedish peasant cottage. The Simeon B. Williams Fund has been increased to $20,000.00. The Robert Alexander Waller Memorial through the addition of $3,798.83 now amounts to $203,798.83. The Renaissance Scholarship Fund and the Walter and Esther J. Isaacs Scholarship Fund have been increased by $140.00 and $441.90 respectively. Among new endowment funds note the following:

the Andrew J. and Martha J. Marble Memorial Fund of $50,000, received through the bequest of Mrs. Helen M. Heartt, the Olivia Shaler Swan Memorial Fund of $40,000.00 received through the bequest of Mrs. L. L. Coburn, the Frances K. Hutchinson Fund of $48,162.50 which, after the death of various annuitants reverts to the Art Institute, the Caroline D. Wade Fund of $10,000, which after the death of the annuitant reverts to the Art Institute of Chicago, the Anna Louise Raymond First Year Scholarship Fund of $6,000.00 of which the income is to be awarded in scholarships to a first year student in the Art Institute Art School who has been graduated from the Chicago Public Schools and who has won honors in classes conducted under the James Nelson Raymond Lecture Fund for Children of Members and Public Schools, the Hagar and David Kawin Award Fund of $2,000.00, the income to be used as a yearly prize for a worthy Art Institute student. Through the bequest of Helen Leslie Carter $1,660.00 was received, the income of which is unrestricted. $1,500 unrestricted as to principal was received also through the bequest of William Van Bergen Ames. $2,500.00 has been received from the Rosenwald Family Association to cover deficiency in income on the Rosenwald gift.

As the two Century of Progress Exhibitions held by the Art Institute showed its position among the museums of the country, so also the usefulness of the Ryerson Library to the Art Institute was emphasized. Through its resources the bibliographical notes for the two elaborate catalogues were supplied; facts and authoritative information were furnished for various projects on the Fair grounds; slides and photographs illustrating all the arts connected with the Century of Progress continued to be in steady demand. The fresh impetus given to the study of art was shown by the large increase in the use of all the illustrative material.

When it is realized that of the half dozen art museum libraries in the United States having over 25,000 volumes, the Art Institute and the Henry E. Huntington libraries are the only ones west of the Atlantic seaboard; when it is observed further, that only three or four other museum libraries in this vast region have over 5,000 volumes, or contain a comprehensive collection of slides and photographs, it is evident why the Art Institute Library has come to fill such an important place in the south and west. These facts explain why the number of colleges, schools, associations and individuals depending upon this Library for aid in various forms continues to grow and to cover so wide a field. The Metropolitan Museum of Art, which limits its field to the region east of the Mississippi River, is the only other museum that circulates visual material freely outside of its own state.

The services of nine part time assistants supplied for three months by Illinois Emergency Relief as well as the part time employment of 23 assistants through Government aid to college students enabled the Library to rehabilitate over 700 worn or dilapidated volumes, classify and arrange a vast amount of clippings, plates and pamphlets and to index our collection of French and German periodicals and sales catalogues. Important gifts were made, during the year, by Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson, Carter H. Harrison, Walter S. Brewster, Alfred E. Hamill, Potter Palmer, Charles H. Worcester and Earl H. Reed.

During the year 772 lectures were given by the Extension Department to audiences numbering 116,183. 172 lectures were given under the auspices of the James Nelson Raymond Lecture Fund for Children of Members and Public Schools. Seventy-three lectures emphasizing and explaining various schools and periods were given by nine speakers to World's Fair audiences. Thirty-five radio broadcasts were given by members of the Department during the year.

The Department of Education presented 867 Gallery

Tours conducted by eleven instructors during the World's Fair period. The evening courses offered by the Department have increased to a point where the present lecture room is overcrowded. The Department should be endowed as in most museums. It is indeed in this department that our Museum has most opportunity for growth and service.

The Curator of the Children's Museum gave daily gallery tours for children during A Century of Progress Exhibition and gave lecture series on Saturday mornings on the following subjects: "Travel and Art for Children," "Masterpieces of A Century of Progress Exhibition" and "Caves, Castles and Churches in Spain." She also offered two courses on the History of Architecture for the Department of Education. Exhibitions of creative work by children were shown during the year.

Sales of catalogues during the year amounted to $21,385.19. Sales of postcards and other reproductions totalled $8,962.21.

Improvements to the building include installation of wired glass above thirteen galleries, a fireproof vault in the box storage where inflammable packing material will be stored, the addition of a large exhaust fan above the north range of painting galleries and the replacement of defective glass and rusted channel irons in the roof valleys of outside skylights.

During the year an architectural competition for a general plan covering the future growth of the museum was inaugurated with David Adler as Chairman and Louis Skidmore as professional adviser. Seven plans were submitted anonymously by nationally known architects, the name of the winning architect remaining unknown to the jury until after the award was made. The jury for the competition, Potter Palmer, Frank G. Logan, John J. Glessner, William O. Goodman, David Adler, Robert Allerton, Frederic C. Bartlett, Eliel Saarinen and Robert B. Harshe unanimously chose the plan offered by Holabird and Root. The total cost of the general plan may reach an expenditure of some eight or nine millions of dollars spread over a period of ten or twenty years. At the present time the Trustees have in mind the erection of the first unit of the general scheme at a cost of not more than $600,000. Detailed studies are being made by the architects and experiments having to do with the lighting of various types of objects will be undertaken by the staff. An experimental building of unique design has already been constructed as a laboratory for these experiments.

ANNUAL REPORT
SUGGESTED FORMS OF BEQUEST

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois Corporation, . . . (amounts or objects bequeathed or list of same) for such uses consistent with the purposes of the aforesaid corporation as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I direct that my executors, out of the remainder of my estate, shall set aside stocks, bonds and notes, or other securities of the value estimated by them to be sufficient to make the sum of dollars, which I hereby give and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, for uses consistent with its purposes, as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, a corporation of the State of Illinois, dollars to be held and applied by the trustees thereof for the uses and purposes of that institution.

I give, devise and bequeath to the said The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, the lands, tenements and hereditaments aforesaid, the leases and all my interest therein and in the covenants therein contained and in the rents to accrue thereunder, and also the reversions in fee in the lands above described.

I direct that my executors shall from my general estate pay over in convenient installments to the trustees of The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, such amounts as shall equal dollars per annum for the period from the date of my death until the . . . day of 19 . . . which amounts I give and bequeath to the aforesaid The Art Institute of Chicago to be received and applied by its Trustees.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage The Art Institute in the great work which it is accomplishing with comparatively small resources, either to give or bequeath to it money or works of art of that high degree of excellence which is worthy of a great museum.
